W TOFO - Bio

African Dancing Duo

W Tofo duo Mario Abel Buce and Xavier Manuel Campione were discovered on YouTube. They were dancing at a Mozambican wedding and caught the eye of superstar Beyonce. She was intrigued by their unique movement which no one on her team could replicate. She flew them over to the the US and not only did they end up teaching her but they also appeared in her video for 'Run The World' and consequently were featured in a Target commercial and her documentary 'Year of 4'. They have since danced with Ciara and appeared on many tv shows in their native Mozambique where they reside and all over Africa.

With their popularity rising in their hometown they have since also collaborated with Portuguese group Buraka Som Sistema at their concert in Maputo as well as appeared in music videos with Lizha James / Afro Madjaha and featured in a Coca Cola sponsored piece.

WTofo are available for workshops and private gigs.
